

Bramfield & Thorington Parish Council Website

Accessibility Statement

The content on this website is run by Bramfield & Thorington Parish Council. We aim to ensure that as many people as possible can use this website.

That generally means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader.

We have aimed to make the website text as simple as possible to understand.

Go to AbilityNet to find advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible is this website?

We know some parts of this website may not be fully accessible.

- the text will not reflow in a single column when you change the size of the browser window
- you cannot modify the line height or spacing of text
- you cannot skip to the main content when using a screen reader.

What to do if you cannot access parts of this website

If you need information on this website in a different format, we will happily provide it. Please contact the Clerk to the Parish Council via email with all such requests and we will get back to you as soon as possible:

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We are always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems that are not listed on this page or if you think we are not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact the Parish Clerk about the issue by emailing: clerk@bandt-pc.gov.uk

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the accessibility regulations. If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS): contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service \(EASS\)

Technical information about this website's accessibility

This website is compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 standard.

What we're doing to improve accessibility

- regularly monitoring the accessibility of our website
- where possible, creating HTML pages rather than PDF documents
- continue to work to resolve all identified issues which are in our control and will release them to the website as soon as they are completed.

Bramfield and Thorington Parish Council is committed to ensuring its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No.2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.
